

Twitter: @JosephPinion
Facebook.com/IAMJoePinion
Instagram: @IAMJoePinion

Joseph Pinion is the former host of “Saturday Agenda w/Joe Pinion” on Newsmax TV and the 2022 Republican nominee for U.S. Senate in against Chuck Schumer, receiving 44% of the vote and becoming the first African-American nominee for U.S. Senate the the history of NY state by either major party.

Joe is also the Founder and Chair of Manifest Dignity, an organization dedicated to promoting conservative principles and demonstrating a commitment to the forgotten building blocks of dignity among urban, religious, and minority groups,

A Republican political strategist and conservative commentator with over a decade of national campaign experience, Joseph has provided regular political analysis on Fox News, CBS News, NBC NOW, and NewsmaxTV.

Joseph is also deeply engaged in the renewable energy space. He serves as the Senior Fellow for Deploy/US, a non-partisan organization dedicated to accelerating U.S. driven solutions on clean energy to ensure help America’s Energy Independence and global economic prowess. He is also the fmr. national spokesman for republicEN.org, a project of the Center for Climate Change Communication at George Mason University designed to promote free market solutions to the issue of clean energy within conservative corridors.

Joseph also serves as Managing Partner for Pinion Equity Ventures, a venture firm specializing in the restructuring and recapitalization of upper-main street and lower middle market companies engaged in the legacy media industry.

Joseph is a proud Colgate University alum, where he majored in English and was a two year Varsity letterman in Football for the Colgate Raiders. He currently resides in Yonkers, New York with his dog, a rescue named Wobbles.

info@JoePinion.com